

EXECUTIVE MOVES

Accounting

Lawrence B. Goodman & Co., an accounting firm in Fair Lawn, welcomed Susan Jacobs as a tax manager.

Susan Jacobs

Jacobs, a seasoned tax and accounting professional, has experience with high-net-worth individuals and closely held businesses. She has a broad background in individual, partnership and corporate tax accounting, as well as a wealth of experience working with all levels of clientele.

Monika Kapuscinski is joining Bederson LLP's Fairfield office alongside Kayla Roney and Saverina Cannici.

Kapuscinski, a graduate of Montclair State University, was brought into Bederson's tax department. Prior to Bederson, she worked as a tax consultant at FTI Consulting Inc.

Roney was added to the firm's accounting and auditing department. She graduated from the University of Scranton with a bachelor's in accounting and has worked as an intern tax preparer in Scranton.

Cannici is another addition to the accounting and auditing department. The Rutgers alumna formerly held a position at Savastano, Kaufman & Co.

Citrin Cooperman hired John Bonelli as general counsel of the Livingston accounting,

CLOSE UP

Matt Carcich

THE RÉSUMÉ

New position: CEO and president at Freedom Bank.

Goals: Continue branching out, building relationships and increasing our communities, while maintaining our traditional high business standards.

Old gig: EVP/chief lending officer of Freedom Bank.

School ties: New Milford High School to Ramapo College of New Jersey.

Family tree: Father of four amazing kids: Christopher, Robbie, Katelyn and Isabela.

Hometown: River Vale.

JUST JERSEY

Favorite place at the Shore: Brigantine on the links.

Bruce, Bon Jovi, Whitney or Sinatra:

Whitney. Who has a more beautiful voice?

Sopranos, Jersey Shore or Housewives of NJ: Sopranos.

Yankees, Mets, Jets, Giants: Yankees all the way, but "Mean" Joe Greene turned me on to the Pittsburgh Steelers as a kid and I've remained loyal since.

Favorite place to chow down: Casual Habana Café in Hackensack.

ALL YOU

What you wanted to be when you were 6: Professional baseball player.

Celebrity you'd like to meet: Bubba Watson.

Historical figure you'd want to meet:

Ernest Hemingway.

Dream vacation: Playing a round of golf in Scotland on St. Andrews' Old Course with my sons and my father.

Your passion: My children.