MOST ACCOUNTANT AND AUDITOR positions require at least a bachelor's degree in accounting or a related field, but some employers prefer applicants with a master's degree in accounting, or with a master's degree in business administration with a concentration in accounting. In addition, accounting education programs train the business leaders of the future, from CPA firm managing partners to CFOs to CEOs. Here is a listing of the academic institutions in New Jersey which offer related degrees, certifications and continuing education courses for accounting professionals.
