

PARTNER PROFILE

Mark A. Mazza, CPA

Managing Partner

Mark serves as Bederson's Managing Partner and is responsible for the firm's governance and long-range planning.

Based in the firm's Fairfield office, he provides accounting, audit and business advisory services to clients in the restaurant/catering, construction, manufacturing, real estate, law firm and healthcare industries.

Mark is a licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the State of New Jersey, a member of the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants (NJCPA), and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

He has authored articles on subjects including issues facing restaurant owners, tax credits for alternative fuel and accounting and management best practices. He is solicited for participation in leadership roundtables and is quoted in publications such as NJBIZ, New Jersey Business, Commerce Magazine and more.

Under his leadership, Bederson has achieved milestones including a perfect peer review record and an FBI commendation. Since 2012, Bederson has received more than two dozen medals in the New Jersey Law Journal's "Best of" survey for business accounting, forensic accounting, bankruptcy valuations, litigation accounting, economic damages, expert witness testimony, corporate investigations and matrimonial financial expertise.

Mark graduated from Seton Hall University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. He has served on various non-profit, fraternal and financial advisory boards.

Mark resides in Essex County.
